About Amaya

Superior Gaming Solutions

Amaya was founded in 2004 on the principles of innovative thinking and world-class customer service. We are committed to providing customers with superior gaming solutions and exceptional technical expertise for the regulated global gaming industry through the design, development, manufacturing, distribution and sale of state-of-the-art technology-based gaming solutions.

Our company offers the latest in gaming trends to government, operator and hospitality industries through our four operational pillars:

Online B2B | Government Solutions | Bricks and Mortar (Land-based) | Entertainment

These four company divisions are driven by our team's creativity, technological brilliance and customer responsiveness. This enables us to continually provide industry-leading service for our clients around the world while delivering the highest quality of gaming solutions and continually developing and supporting our products.

Clients trust in Amaya – and for good reason. We are committed to social responsibility, transparency and good business practice throughout all facets of our company.

Amaya Gaming Group Inc. is publicly traded on the TSX:V under the trading symbol AYA.

AMAYA

Government Solutions

Amaya offers various levels of regulated, national lottery solutions to governments around the world - from individual games to complete turnkey lottery operations. Our regulatory and technical expertise ensures the highest level of security, integrity and transparency for our clients. Some of our lottery products include SMS Lotteries, mobile application-based solutions, online gaming and other popular products like scratch tickets.

Amaya provides a new medium to deliver lottery products to consumers. Certified to be fair, random and secure, our mobile-based lotteries provide instant reach and flexible gaming options so consumers can play anywhere and anytime utilising their mobile device.

We provide governments the ability to take advantage of the strong market demand for mobile-based gaming and continually build long-term relationships with customers in jurisdictions all around the world.
