Chartwell Launches its Much Anticipated Live Dealer Product

Chartwell Technology Inc.

TSX:CWH

Calgary, Canada, February 17, 2011, Chartwell Technology Inc. and its subsidiary, Chartwell Games (International) Ltd. ("Chartwell" or the "Company") (TSX: CWH), a leading provider of games, gaming systems and platform for the regulated online casino gaming industry is excited to announce that its Live Dealer casino product is now fully operational.

Through its exclusive licensing agreement for Europe with its partner HoGaming, Chartwell's Live Dealer games are now available at Globet casino. Mybet, Victor Chandler, Doxxbet and other top tier operators are scheduled to launch in the coming weeks.

Chartwell's European Live Dealer product is licensed by the regulatory authorities in the Isle of Man and features player favourites such as blackjack, roulette and baccarat. Highly trained, professional European and Asian dealers provide the ultimate online casino experience via exceptional quality video feed and superior game features. Given HoGaming's expertise with premiere land-based casinos, operators and players can be assured that the same proven and fair gaming standards and principles will be applied to all of Chartwell's online Live Dealer casino games.

By adding Live Dealer to its casino portfolio, Chartwell anticipates growth opportunities for its clients by targeting both VIP players and players who may not trust the traditional RNG model. It is estimated that over 25% of overall operator revenue is generated by Live Dealer products and lifetime values of the player typically increase by 15 – 20%.

"After showcasing Live Dealer at ICE 2011 in London last month, the response has been overwhelmingly positive," states David Acorn, Chief Operating Officer. "Our Live Dealer product takes online casino to a whole new level and we're confident that operators will agree that it's a natural complement to their existing RNG games and offers great cross-sell opportunities. Adding Live Dealer to our diverse portfolio of over 100 online casino games is one of many exciting initiatives in store for Chartwell this year."
